

Congratulations are also in order to Justin Doucette, who was recently selected, out of 1,300 applicants, to serve as the Nevada member of the IRS Taxpayer Advocacy Panel. Each state is allotted one panel member position for each 1.9 million taxpayers residing in that state. Justin, a CPA, is a partner in the Coyote Cafe restaurants in Las Vegas, and also an associate with the Sunbelt Business Brokers Network. Best of luck to you, Justin!
